About the Property

Flow through this spectacular end unit townhouse beaming with a bright custom designed kitchen with soft close cabinets and drawers, recessed lighting, subway tile flashing, quartz countertops, Pergo flooring and modern appliances. Sunlight is beaming through dining area windows, with custom window coverings, to highlight the dining area. Stroll thru the house to a welcoming living room with Pella doors leading to a backyard patio. Lounge on the patio looking out at the woodland. No fear of building behind as the forest leads to the Egg Harbor River system. A raised garden bed is available for planting should you be inclined. At the back of the yard under cover of tree limbs is a perennial rich rock garden. The downstairs offers a powder room with custom built vanity with granite top. The ...
