About the Property

This vernacular cottage, with its covered front porch, is reminiscent of classic architecture of the past and creates a warm and inviting atmosphere. Upon entering the foyer, the central staircase provides easy access to all areas of the house and is handsomely detailed with custom elements. The kitchen and breakfast room open conveniently to the great room accommodating today's casual lifestyles designed for entertainment and comfortable living. The connecting parlor and dining room (optional den office) add to the ease of entertainment. The first-floor master bedroom has French doors which open onto a rear terrace. The second floor, with its gallery like balcony, has two bedrooms and a bonus room. See additional documents for finishes and allowances. 8 months to build from permi ...
