About the Property

Welcome to The Tides at Seaboard Point, a one-of-a-kind waterfront condominium complex located on the bay in the Anglesea section of North Wildwood. This sought-after community consists of 96 residential units across four buildings, offering spectacular water views. Each residence enjoys either sweeping bay views to the west, stunning ocean sunrise views to the east, or in some cases, both. Residents enjoy an array of exceptional amenities, including assigned under-building parking with direct elevator access, and more than 100 additional first-come parking spaces within the circular drive, private storage areas for each unit, and convenient USPS mail service located in the elevator lobbies. The beautifully appointed clubhouse features a spacious gathering room, billiards room, restrooms, ...
