About the Property

Just five homes from the shoreline of the Delaware Bay, The Lucky Horseshoe captures the essence of easy coastal living with a setting that's all about sunsets, sea breezes, and effortless relaxation. Positioned on an oversized lot and framed by beautifully maintained landscaping, this updated three-bedroom, two-bath retreat offers a rare combination of space, style, and proximity to the water an opportunity that's increasingly hard to find this close to the bay. Inside, the home opens to a bright and welcoming floor plan where natural light pours in through a charming skylight, accentuating the updated finishes and warm, coastal feel throughout. The kitchen is both functional and inviting, equipped with modern appliances and seamlessly connected to the dining and living areas ...
