About the Property

Shore living meets wooded tranquility in this well-kept and lovingly cared for home tucked away in the desirable Bay Gardens neighborhood of North Cape May. This unique property is partially surrounded by undeveloped land, offering a rare degree of peace and privacy. With 3-4 bedrooms, 2.5 baths, and over 2,200 square feet of living space there is plenty of room for the expanding household or to serve as a vacation home for hosting your extended tribe. A covered front porch greets you before entering the foyer area featuring a beautifully laid inlay tile floor. Flow into the front living room for an enjoyable space to sit, relax, and enjoy good company. A formal dining room offers a flexible space for enjoying meals, working from home, or paying bills while still being connected to the h ...
