About the Property

Situated on a private wooded lot overlooking the Cape May Canal, 416 Portsmouth offers incredible water views, peaceful surroundings, and plenty of space to enjoy shore living at its best. From watching boats pass by to taking in the meadow views and local wildlife, this custom red cedar contemporary was designed to make the most of its waterfront setting. Located just minutes from downtown Cape May, you'll enjoy easy access to shopping, restaurants, and beaches while still feeling tucked away in your own private retreat. Inside, the home offers large gathering spaces with plenty of potential for entertaining and relaxing. Update the kitchen to make it your own chef's dream complete with a breakfast nook. The first-floor primary suite features a walk-in closet, changing area, split bat ...
