About the Property

Nestled within one of Avalon's most private and sought-after beachside enclaves, this extraordinary residence sits on an oversized 70 x 110 lot just three homes from the beach. Expertly designed by Architecture, meticulously executed by Winfield Developers, and beautifully curated by Something Special Interiors, the home represents a rare combination of timeless seashore architecture, exceptional craftsmanship, and a classic yet modern interior finish. Spanning 5,249 square feet, the design and livability of the home more closely resemble Avalon's premier bayfront residences than a traditional beach-adjacent property a direct result of the lot's uncommon scale and thoughtful planning. Natural cedar shingle siding and roofing, standing seam metal accents, intricate millwork, mahoga ...
