About the Property

A Carnival Bay masterpiece. Positioned within one of Stone Harbor's most picturesque bayfront settings, this extraordinary home is poised to become the most sought-after new construction offering of 2026. Conceived by one of the Island's premier collaborative teams, consisting of Brandywine Developers, Asher Slaunwhite Architects, and Megan Gorelick Interiors, the home blends timeless coastal architecture with stunningly curated interior design and a waterfront setting that is as tranquil as it is visually striking. The location offers expansive water views, remarkable sunset exposure, and the rare ability to walk comfortably to both the center of Stone Harbor and the beach. The home's quintessential coastal facade unfolds across four magazine-worthy elevations, where natural cedar's ...
