About the Property

This well-maintained 3-bedroom, 2-bath home offers a wonderful opportunity for buyers looking to add their own personal style and updates. Inside, you'll find a comfortable and functional floor plan with spacious living areas, large eat -n kitchen, central air conditioning for year-round comfort. The home's solid condition makes it an excellent canvas for cosmetic updates while allowing you to move in and make improvements over time. Outside, the low-maintenance vinyl siding adds curb appeal, while the detached garage provides ample space for parking, storage, or a workshop. The covered rear porch is the perfect place to relax, entertain, or enjoy your morning coffee overlooking the backyard, which offers plenty of room for gardening, outdoor activities, or future enhancements.
