About the Property

If panoramic views of the ocean, inlet, bay and sunsets are what you wish for, look no further than 231 122nd Street. We have found the perfect home for you!! This good-condition upside-down home offers 4 bedrooms, 3.5 baths with an attached garage and a glistening pool. The property also presents an ideal location to build your seashore dream home. Located on the south side of 122nd Street, this lot offers the finest panoramic views the island has to offer! It also benefits from being in one of the Island's highest elevations. From a large upper deck, panoramic views begin easterly to the ocean, south over the expansive preservation including the Southernmost point of Stone Harbor where it adjoins Hereford Inlet as well as westerly to the back bay delivering magnificent sunsets.
