About the Property

Welcome to 1101 Wissahickon Avenue, a magical private oasis tucked away in the peaceful enclave of Schellenger's Landing on Spicer's Creek. Situated on a generous 100' x 100' lot, this one of a kind 2 bedroom, 2 bath home offers breathtaking water views, exceptional privacy, and a lifestyle immersed in the natural beauty of Cape May, while still being close enough to town's renowned attractions and hot spots such as The Lobster House and Lucky Bones. From the moment you arrive, a sense of relaxation washes over you, while lush landscaping and a spacious screened in porch create a warm and welcoming first impression. Step inside to discover warm hardwood floors, exposed beam ceilings, and an abundance of natural light streaming through a decorative skylight. The gourmet kitchen is beaut ...
