About the Property

Move-in ready and thoughtfully updated, this Erma split-level offers a versatile layout, extensive recent improvements, and inviting indoor and outdoor living spaces. Situated on a generous 120' x 100' lot, the 3-bedroom, 3-full bath home has been well maintained and upgraded throughout. The property has also been utilized as a successful vacation rental, offering flexibility for continued rental use or enjoyment as a primary residence. A short flight of stairs from the entry leads to the open-concept main living level, featuring a spacious living room, dining area, and renovated eat-in kitchen. The kitchen is appointed with granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a center island providing additional prep space and storage. French doors from the dining area open to a fully fen ...
