About the Property

As you turn onto Galloping Way, a sense of tranquility greets you on this peaceful cul de sac. Four bedrooms and 2,776 square feet fill a two story colonial with a wraparound front porch built for rocking chairs and morning coffee. Sit there for five minutes and notice what's missing no through traffic, no headlights swinging across the yard after dark. Inside, the whole interior has just been freshly painted, and the layout runs the way a 2004 colonial should. The living room centers on a propane fireplace and built in shelving, hardwood floors lead into a formal dining room with wainscoting and French doors out to a covered porch, and the kitchen has been updated with white cabinetry, dark countertops, a tile backsplash, and an island facing the breakfast area. Upstairs, new carpet run ...
