About the Property

This 2-bedroom, 2-bathroom ranch home sits on a prime corner lot just two blocks from the Delaware Bay and beaches, a place where the water washes away the stress of the day. Designed for relaxed coastal living, this move-in-ready property features a completely fenced-in yard and an expansive wrap-around deck, perfect for long afternoons when you just want to sit out on the porch. Watch the sun come through the blinds in the main living space. This space features an open concept, cathedral ceilings that create a bright, inviting atmosphere where time slows down and the simple things matter most. The well-appointed kitchen comes outfitted with crisp white cabinetry, full stainless steel appliances, and durable Corian countertops. A separate laundry room offers practical convenience and neat ...
