About the Property

Warm and welcoming, this 1910 Craftsman cottage blends timeless character with thoughtful modern updates. Hardwood floors, original stained glass, a sun porch overlooking the tree-lined street, and an inviting living room with interior colonnade create a classic first impression. The first floor also offers a dining room, modern kitchen with marble counters, laundry area, updated full bath, and large screened porch overlooking the backyard and koi pond. Upstairs, two comfortable bedrooms and a full modern bath provide flexible living space. One bedroom was originally two rooms and could be restored if desired. 2 zone gas heat and central air. Attic storage is available for safety, buyers should not enter the attic during tours. The lot was separated by master deed and bylaws. The 2-car d ...
