About the Property

Close to the bay, with direct bay access at the end of the street and within close proximity to Cox Creek WMA, this fully updated 3-bedroom, 1-bath rancher blends easy single-story living with a location that's hard to replace. The kitchen was fully renovated in 2021 with a Viking range and hood, an eat-in counter, and updated appliances throughout. A primary living area at the front of the home offers flexible everyday space. A rear addition completed in 2005 added a second living area an open-concept dining and family room along with a walk-in pantry and dedicated utility closet, and two rear bay windows bring in natural light overlooking the backyard. The front of the home was updated in 2023 with new board-and-batten siding on the facade and porch, along with fresh masonry ...
