About the Property

You will find that this home has everything that you would want. The home is located on a cul-de-sac street and close to Avalon Boulevard. The floor plan of the home flows nicely with the spaces well sized that makes each room feel comfortable. The first floor is the living level. The living room and dining room are separate with a large opening between them. The spacious and well laid out kitchen leads to an eat-in-kitchen table. The family room is roomy with a bay window and gas fireplace. The sliding door from the eat-in kitchen table leads to the spacious patio area and a large pool. A power room is also on this level. From the laundry room you step out to the 2 car garage. The stairway to the second floor leads to a spacious hall that leads to the bedrooms. The master bedroo ...
