About the Property

Set along one of the most sought after stretches of the Delaware Bay, this 2002-built home pairs traditional charm with easy, modern living. Large windows and transoms throughout bring in natural light and open the house up to water views from nearly every room. Outdoor space is ample and flexible. Multiple decks allow for privacy and views. The sizable second-floor deck has its own adjacent room with wet bar, fridge and seating making grilling easy. Downstairs, the island kitchen opens straight into the dining room, and large great room, allowing for gracious entertaining. A rear deck offers a second grilling station. The 2 HVAC systems were updated 3 and 4 years ago respectively. The roof was replaced in 2024. The floor plan also has spaces for retreat. Cozy spaces and decks make for gr ...
