About the Property

Located on a desirable corner lot in the peaceful Tranquility neighborhood, this property offers a wonderful coastal setting directly across the street from the Cape May Canal. This is a special opportunity to be part of one of Lower Township's sought-after neighborhoods while enjoying the relaxed Cape May lifestyle. The front door opens into a spacious living room with a connected dining area, creating a comfortable, open concept feel throughout the main living space. Beyond the dining area is an additional Florida room, perfect for relaxing, reading, or enjoying extra living space. Upstairs, the home features three bedrooms and one full bathroom. The lower level offers a large, versatile room that can be used as a family room, office, playroom, or additional sleeping area. This level ...
