About the Property

Experience the best of island living this summer at Coquille Beach, one of the most desirable oceanfront private communities on the south end of Brigantine. This serene coastal retreat offers access to a heated community pool and the peaceful atmosphere that makes Brigantine's south end so special. Located just about a 15-minute walk through the scenic reserve area to the beach and only a quick drive to the popular Cove Beach, this 3-bedroom townhouse is the perfect place to relax, unwind, and enjoy shore life. The home features spacious multi-level living, with large gathering room and slider doors to a rear deck. Step outside to the deck with outdoor seating—perfect for morning coffee or evening cocktails after a day in the sun. The dining area comfortably seats six for family meals ...
