About the Property

You need to see this in person to appreciate it.. Experience coastal living at its finest in this impeccably maintained home, nestled comfortably just a stone's throw away from the Delaware Bay in Heislerville. This rare offering with breathtaking views, without direct exposure to bayfront conditions, ensures peace of mind and minimal flood insurance costs. Raised on pilings with new siding installed in 2024 this home remains high and dry, significantly reducing flood risk. Enjoy expansive vistas from one of the fiberglass decks with new vinyl railings or the new large rooftop deck with composite decking. Modern upgrades include a water softener and reverse osmosis system (installed in 2016) a new sliding glass door, new roof and gutters installed in 2020, and a dual-zone Mitsubishi mini-s ...
