About the Property

Historic beach block beauty in Lower Chelsea, blending timeless character with modern comfort. This well preserved brick home features exquisite original woodwork, high ceilings, and vintage architectural details that immediately set the tone the moment you walk through the front door. An inviting, open layout flows from the spacious living and dining areas into the kitchen with modern finishes and stainless appliances, perfect for hosting family and friends. With 6 generous bedrooms, 4.5 baths, and a versatile bonus room on the top floor, plus an enclosed outdoor shower, there is plenty of space for everyone to spread out. The large, covered front porch captures ocean breezes and offers the perfect spot for your morning coffee or evening cocktails. There is an unfinished basement that pro ...
