About the Property

This newly constructed four-bedroom, three-and-a-half-bath residence delivers modern coastal luxury through premium craftsmanship, elevated design, and an exceptional location in the highly sought-after Parkway Section of Margate. The home features striking James Hardie siding, black Andersen windows, and a clean architectural presence that reflects both durability and refined style. The open-concept main level is filled with abundant natural light and enhanced by engineered wood flooring throughout, 10-foot ceilings, and a built-in electric fireplace that anchors the living space with warmth and sophistication. The designer kitchen showcases Wellborn modern wood-tone cabinetry, quartz countertops, high-end appliances, and an expansive island—ideal for both everyday living and effortless ...
