About the Property

Welcome to 56 Main Street a charming Colonial home, built in 1770, that offers a perfect blend of historic character and modern comfort. This corner property sits on just over a half acre with peaks of the Nacote Creek. The first step into the front door offers a glimpse of what's to come; an authentic foyer with recently finished gleaming hardwood floors. A parlour greets you first, perfect for small office, reading nook or as a small bonus living area. The large living area features a wood stove that acts as an inexpensive heat source for the home. Make your way into the kitchen with rustic cabinetry, modern granite counters and a showstopping, vintage stove. We bet you will spend a lot of time in the back sun room with large windows and exposed beams. Other main floor features include a ...
