About the Property

Set in a quiet, tucked-away section of Harding Lakes, this waterfront ranch offers one-floor living with a rare multi-generational layout. The setting is calm, private, and backed by open water views that immediately change the pace of the day. The home is one of the larger models in the community and was thoughtfully updated in 2019. Inside, the layout is separated by a den with added bar, making it ideal for extended family, guests, or flexible work-from-home needs while still feeling connected. Six bedrooms (one currently used as a home office) and two full baths provide options without wasted space. Granite countertops, laminate flooring, and updated finishes keep the interior clean and current. Dual-zone HVAC and newer mechanicals support comfort and efficiency year-round. Outside, ...
