About the Property

Make your move to Mill Road! Where else can you find a home with its own private driveway and total seclusion on over 4 acres!? This ranch style model is waiting for its new owner. As you walk through the front door, you'll be mesmerized by the cathedral ceilings in your living room in addition to your wood burning fireplace and windows that offer natural lighting on both sides! Your living room flows right into a large dining room area, which is right of your kitchen, as is your master bedroom. The bedrooms are so big that each could be considered the "main" bedroom in a different home. The home also boasts of 3.5BA. You don't see that too often and the full basement could make for an incredible, below grade, living space. Moss Mill is a MUST! Call Today! ...
