About the Property

Welcome to 1205 Zion Road — a charming circa-1830 farmhouse-style home filled with character, history, and incredible potential. With approximately 2,100+ square feet of living space across three stories, this unique property blends the charm of yesteryear with comfortable everyday living and just the right opportunity to add your own updates and personal touch. Step onto the covered front porch and into a warm and inviting living room. The first floor features beautiful dark laminate flooring, elegant crown molding, and striking window trim that highlights the craftsmanship of the home. The layout flows into a spacious eat-in kitchen with a center island, perfect for gathering, casual dining, and everyday living. Just beyond the kitchen is a large family room addition featuring a stunn ...
