About the Property

Rare opportunity to lease a versatile mixed-use property on a double lot in a prime Somers Point/Linwood location, within the highly sought-after Linwood school district. Offering both residential and commercial flexibility, this property is ideal for a live/work setup or home office, just minutes to shopping, major roadways, and the shore. The home is laid out like a single-family residence featuring a spacious first floor with a large front room with French doors, hardwood flooring, half bath, and a full kitchen with new appliances, plus a new washer and dryer. The second floor offers three bedrooms and a full bath, along with a finished walk-up attic for additional space. Additional features include a full unfinished basement and a detached finished garage with heat and plumbing—per ...
