About the Property

Welcome to 126 Aetna Road — a rare opportunity to own a truly private estate set on 21.6 expansive acres of land. Tucked away from it all, this steel-framed single-family home offers strength, space, and endless potential in a setting that is both peaceful and impressive. Step inside to find luxury Italian tile flooring and a dramatic marble foyer that sets the tone as you enter the primary suite. The master bedroom is generously sized and features his-and-hers walk-in closets, creating a spacious retreat within the home. Throughout the main living areas, the layout offers great scale, highlighted by a huge, deep indoor pool just off the living room — an incredible feature for year-round enjoyment and entertaining. The kitchen is equipped with Viking appliances, offering high-end perfo ...
