About the Property

Opportunity knocks just moments from the beach with this classic Brigantine bungalow—offering the rare chance to create your ideal shore retreat with added flexibility for future enhancements. This 2-bedroom cottage captures the essence of coastal living, featuring a fully fenced backyard perfect for pets, entertaining, or relaxing in the sea breeze. The existing layout also allows for the potential to add off-street parking along the side of the home, while the rear deck offers an ideal footprint for a future three-season room—without sacrificing the charm of the front porch for morning coffee or evening unwinding. Enjoy the ease of single-family ownership with no condo fees or restrictions, all within close proximity to the beach. Inside, the space is efficient and ready for your p ...
