About the Property

Home with a History... and a Bright Future!
Welcome to 115 Rte 50 in Corbin City! Many know this property as the home of Corbin City Woodworking, because this little commercial woodshop showcases its famous handcrafted tables & chairs out front. Sharing this parcel is a beautifully restored residence. Fondly known as "Sand's O' Dee", commissioned by the Wadsworth family of New York & Newport RI, and originally built in Avalon NJ during the early 1930's. This ageless beauty was rescued and moved offshore to its current location by the German family, and now sits upon an elevated foundation that houses a full-height basement and garage, with laundry & pet washing tub. Rising up to the 2nd floor, where the living space begins, you'll be greeted by an expansive wraparound deck that makes ...
