About the Property

This charming ranch-style home offers four bedrooms, two and a half baths, and 1,400 square feet of thoughtfully updated living space, all nestled on a serene, wooded lot spanning just over an acre. If you're looking for privacy and a connection to nature, this property delivers in spades. As you arrive, the large circular driveway welcomes you with ease, providing ample parking. You'll immediately notice the home's curb appeal, thanks to newer siding, a newer roof, and a covered front porch. A nearby shed, complemented by a stone path and driveway, adds practicality and charm. Step inside and be greeted by an inviting, spacious living room. Newer wood flooring stretches across the main level, while recessed lighting and Anderson windows create a bright, welcoming atmosphere. A bui ...
