About the Property

Welcome to a peaceful waterfront setting in one of Mays Landing's most tucked-away neighborhoods, overlooking the scenic waters of Lake Lenape. This custom built home, lovingly maintained by its original owner, sits on just over half an acre and offers more than 100 feet of lake frontage with deep water access and a private dock ready for your boat. This unique ranch-style home features an open living room filled with character, complete with a wood burning fireplace and stunning exposed wood beams. Just beyond, an enclosed porch offers year-round panoramic views of the lake and is sure to become your favorite place to relax. Step outside onto the rear deck, perfect for entertaining or enjoying peaceful mornings overlooking the water. The kitchen is perfectly positioned to overlook th ...
