About the Property

Rarely available single-level home with a fully private suite layout in the Millbrook section of Willingboro. The original dining room has been thoughtfully converted into a second living area directly connected to a bedroom, creating a semi-independent living space that works for multigenerational families, a live-in family member, or simply the most flexible floor plan available at this price. Fully renovated throughout with new luxury vinyl plank flooring, white shaker kitchen cabinets, stainless steel appliances, recessed lighting, and two full bathrooms. Low annual taxes of $7,127. Single-floor living. Private backyard. Seller reviewing all offers as received.
