About the Property

Welcome to 1720 Simpson, a completely reimagined two-level home that stands out from the rest. This front-facing unit offers a rare 3-bedroom, 3 full bath layout, something you almost never see in a property like this, along with two full levels of living for added space and privacy. The interior has been fully renovated top to bottom, with walls removed to create an open, functional living area. Everything has been redone, giving the home a clean, modern, move-in-ready feel. The property includes off-street parking and a large private storage shed for bikes, beach gear, and additional storage. Located directly across from the community center, library, and aquatic and fitness center, this home offers convenience in a great setting.
