About the Property

Discover the potential in this rancher on an extra-large corner lot, perfectly situated for those looking to plant roots in a premier beach community. Located just a short distance from the beach, seawall, and local golf course, this property offers the ideal footprint for a coastal retreat or primary residence. The heated oversized (36'x24') detached garage has potential for a workshop, boat storage, or car enthusiast's dream space. This home is being sold strictly in "As Is" condition, making it an incredible opportunity for contractors, or savvy buyers ready to put in the sweat equity. Whether you are looking to renovate the existing structure or reimagining the space entirely, this is one of the most affordable ways to secure a spot in the highly sought after Island market. ...
