About the Property

Homes on the 14th fairway at Harbor Pines Golf Club rarely come to market. When they do, they typically trade in the low nines. This one is priced well below that, and the reason is direct: the home needs cosmetic renovation. The bones are exceptional. The address, however, cannot be replicated. Set directly along the fairway in Egg Harbor Township, this 3,900-square-foot custom home delivers a five-bedroom, four-bath layout built around a first-floor primary suite. That suite includes a large walk-in closet, a fireplace, a jacuzzi tub, and a private bath. A dedicated home office sits just off the main level. Upstairs, two bedrooms share a second oversized suite with a bonus room suited for a media space, playroom, or guest quarters. Two full bathrooms serve each floor. The main living spa ...
