About the Property

From the moment you arrive, the covered front porch and manicured lawn give you that feeling you have been looking for. The living room features hardwood style floors, recessed lighting, crown molding and a stone surround gas fireplace with a rustic wood mantle. The separate dining room has its own gas fireplace, crown molding and hardwood floors making it the perfect space to gather, host and make memories. Whether you are hosting a dinner party or a casual night in, the kitchen has everything you need. Granite countertops on every surface, a center island with built-in cooktop, raised panel cabinetry to the ceiling, stainless steel appliances, pendant lighting, under cabinet lighting and a slider that opens directly to the backyard. Both bathrooms are fully renovated. The primary en suit ...
