About the Property

Longport home with ocean AND bay views! It is located only a few houses from the beach, just a block and half from the ocean and a stone's throw to the bay! Oberon Ave features only a handful of houses and is one of the prettiest locations in all of Longport! As soon as you enter, there is a wide open main level - perfect for hosting friends and family and a spacious dining area with separate bar and open to the kitchen with counter seating too! There is a porch right off the kitchen/dining area to eat or lounge outside and enjoy shore breezes. The kitchen showcases SubZero refrigerator and Wolf stove. There are four wonderful bedrooms over this approximately 3850 square foot home and each bedroom boasts its own private bathroom. The primary bedroom features a private corner wraparound bal ...
