About the Property

The moment you pull up to this home, you will appreciate the curb appeal of these meticulously manicured grounds. Once through the foyer you will notice the natural sunlight beaming in from the majestic cathedral ceiling. To the left you can feel the warmth of the fireplace and it isn't even on. The kitchen has been beautifully upgraded leading into the first floor primary suite with its side entrance onto the outside patio and oasis. The full basement is adorned with classic art work and affords more than adequate work or recreation space. The upstairs has two gracious bedrooms and another full bathroom completing the top level of this home. In addition to all the enhancements to this home, it is equipped with solar and there is no lease, solar bills range about $50.00 a month translatin ...
