About the Property

Being Sold As Is. This home was originally the model home overlooking the pond and is the very popular Fairfield model which features two bedrooms on the first floor, one being the Main, en-suite bedroom with large walk in closet. Another feature of this model is the beautiful kitchen with granite countertops and stainless appliances and its round breakfast nook enveloped in natural light with two levels of windows. The living room and dining room have hardwood floors, high ceilings and a gas fireplace. There's also a conveniently located utility room and a powder room on the first floor. Then there's the 2nd floor which is the perfect setup for a separate living space with a bedroom, bathroom and nicely sized sitting room. And don't miss the aenormous walk in attic for storage ...
