About the Property

Live just one block from the beach in this beautifully appointed 3-bedroom, 3-bath home located directly across from the Margate Library. With no buildings blocking your view, this property offers an unbeatable location—walkable to Margate's best restaurants, shops, and entertainment. Inside, you'll find a spacious living room with sliding doors that open to a large porch, perfectly sized for a dining table where you can enjoy dinner with the ocean breeze. The home features a fully equipped kitchen, a cozy reading area with an open-concept ceiling that brings in abundant natural light, and a convenient laundry room. The backyard includes a grill area and an enclosed outdoor shower, ideal after a day at the beach. Parking is easy with off-street parking, a garage that fits one car, ...
