About the Property

Charming bungalow in one of Atlantic County's most sought after neighborhoods! This adorable 3-bedroom, 1-bath home is filled with natural light. Just steps from the bike path and Tilton Road, you'll love having everyday amenities right at your fingertips. Inside, you'll find a bright and inviting layout with central air, while outside features a fully fenced backyard complete with a no maintenance deck off the back of the house. A full basement provides ample storage. Whether you're a first-time homebuyer, looking to downsize, or searching for a smart investment opportunity, this home checks all the boxes. Located in the highly desirable Mainland School District and just a 10-minute drive to the beach, you'll enjoy the best of both neighborhood living and shore convenience. ...
