About the Property

Incredibly appointed LARCH in the Manchester Village Community of Four Seasons. The stone-front and lush landscaping begins the eye pleasing adventure of touring this home. The living and dining combination front rooms lend graceful elegance shown with custom draperies and window treatments on your front bump out windows, crown molding, chair rail and gleaming hardwood floors. As you enter the kitchen, you are greeted with bright cherry cabinets, stainless appliances, granite counters with tile backsplash and as you look through the open floor plan you see the family room and conditioned four season room. There is a gas fireplace, French doors to the porch and impressive hard scaped patio with ample space to enjoy the wooded view of your backyard. The primary bedroom and bath are elegant ...
