About the Property

Welcome to one of the best homes that the south end of Sea Isle can offer. Thomas Walsh built and beautifully maintained and updated by the original owners, this property is ready for the next family to call Home! The features are plentiful and we'll try to highlight some of those that should really catch your eye. Starting in the garage, the high ceilings, door opener, custom epoxy floor, extra storage and if a Jeep enthusiast, the brackets are already on the wall for your tops to hang next summer. The first floor offers a nice sized entry foyer, two large bedrooms, newly installed custom vinyl flooring and a completely renovated (3 years) hall bath that really shines. In addition, there is a large laundry space located on this level. The second floor is stunning with cathedral ceiling ...
