About the Property

Welcome to 12 Dogwood Drive — where peaceful surroundings meet everyday fun. This expansive custom ranch blends contemporary updates with timeless character on a generous, landscaped lot, making it one of the larger three-bedroom, two-bath homes to hit the Somers Point market in five years. The living room, kitchen, and dining area flow seamlessly into the family room, anchored by elevated ceilings, skylights, and a cozy fireplace — the perfect setting for long conversations, Sunday dinners, or a good puzzle. Warm-weather living continues in the Florida room and on the rear deck overlooking a private backyard — bird watching, yard games, grilling, whatever feels right for the season. Down the hall, two bedrooms and a full bathroom lead to an owner's suite tucked into its own corner
