About the Property

Welcome to this charming and private 1-bedroom, 1.5-bath colonial style home with a spacious loft offering extra potential bedroom space. This house feels tucked away from it all, set back from the road on 4 wooded acres located in the highly desired Dorothy. Step inside and enjoy the cabin-like feel featuring cathedral ceilings, exposed wood beams, and a wood-burning stove. The loft overlooks the main living area and adds flexibility to the home's layout. Outside you will find a wraparound new stone driveway, a new Pole Barn with concrete floors and beautiful barn-style doors providing excellent storage, workspace, or hobby space with electricity and a generator hook up to power the house. The property also includes two additional storage sheds. The roof is less than five years old. Are ...
