About the Property

Linwood's Goldcoast! Updated and expanded split level home tucked away on a quiet cul de sac street. With attractive curb appeal, a covered front porch, cedar impression vinyl siding, stone accents, a raised front garden bed and two car off street parking, this home makes a wonderful first impression. Inside, the home feels fresh, bright and move in ready with new luxury vinyl plank flooring in current beige and soft grey tones, freshly painted interiors and updated doors throughout. Multiple bay windows bring in wonderful natural light, including two in the den and another in the kitchen. The kitchen features white painted cabinetry with attractive hardware, quartz countertops with beveled edging, updated lighting, stainless appliances including a brand new refrigerator. Upstairs, a new ...
